

House Resolution No. 2862

Whereas, it is with special pleasure that the members of the Missouri House of Representatives pause to recognize Craig Warner, Associate Professor of Art in graphic design and interactive digital media at Northwest Missouri State University, who has graciously donated a piece of original artwork to be displayed during House Education Committee meetings; and

Whereas, Mr. Warner has used his time and talent to create a poster illustrating "Students are Fundamental to Education" in order to help remind the committee members as they vote that their most important priority is to ensure the best educational opportunities for all students in the state; and

Whereas, Northwest Missouri State University has received the National Association of College and University Business Officers First Place Award and the Missouri Quality Award in recognition for its quality efforts; and

Whereas, Northwest Missouri State University fosters a Culture of Quality, and uses this as a template for planning and agenda setting, continually striving for innovative approaches to teaching and learning; and

Whereas, Northwest Missouri State University has distinguished itself among American Universities by installing the first comprehensive electronic campus in the nation by equipping every residence hall room and faculty office with a networked computer workstation:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-second General Assembly, unanimously join in expressing our most sincere thanks to Craig Warner for donating his original piece of artwork to be displayed at House Education Committee meetings and to Northwest Missouri State University for continually striving for excellence in education; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution for Northwest Missouri State University.
